*While it's been common in Roman Catholicism, an extremely disturbing trend has made itself known the last number of

This is diametrically opposed to everything that God stands for.
It flies in the face of the Word of God:*

I) BUYING AND SELLING IN THE HOUSE OF GOD!

– Which dishonours God in Your Eyes/in Your Opinion

IN HIS ROUGHLY 33 years of life on earth Jesus rarely got angry. On one occasion Jesus was perturbed when His disciples prevented children from coming to see Him:

14 But when Jesus saw it, He was much displeased, and said unto them, Suffer the little children to come unto Me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God.

Mark 10:14 The BIBLE

On another occasion Jesus was angered when the Pharisees attempted to stop Him from healing on the Sabbath:

5 And when He had looked round about on them with anger, being grieved for the hardness of their hearts, He saith unto the man, Stretch forth thine hand. And he stretched it out: and his hand was restored whole as the other.

Mark 3:5 The BIBLE

But in the only two instances in which we are shown Jesus' outright, passionate, rage, Jesus is at His most vehement. On these two occasions Jesus indeed surpasses Himself, flying into a rage, and, in fact, making whips and flaying people, violently overturning furniture, destroying people's businesses and means of earning a living, and physically casting people out of His presence and the presence of God.

Jesus was moved to this degree on two occasions¹ only ... and both for the same reason. The offense was not adultery, murder, nor cruelty. The unconscionable sin was that of buying and selling in the temple of God. These two occasions address the identical concern. And these two instances flank His ministry: Jesus casts the merchants out of the temple at the beginning of His ministry² and at the end of His ministry³ – in fact, the matter is so important that He not only is at His most vehement, but repeats the action! And He does it not only at the beginning of His ministry, but also at the end of His ministry, to show that its need has not only continued, but has remained applicable throughout!

But, despite the prominent position these actions of Christ hold in His earthly biography, many are loathe to obey Him themselves, as though what Jesus did was inconsequential!

While churches usually don't advertise well, they certainly are beginning to do business! Pre-schools, schools, weight loss businesses, thrift stores, dance studios, convention and meetings, etc., are found in our churches during the week, while coffee shops, Christian book stores, etc., join them, on Sundays. What's more, churches are now often selling coffee and snacks during church (or during mid-service break), and allowing the pastor or visiting preachers or groups to sell books, tapes, CDs, DVDs, etc., before, during, and after service. And along with the service's announcements, fund raising pitches are made, for baking and special fund-raising dinners, etc., and weekly church bulletin brochures are filled with fundraising flyers, advertisements for trips to the Holy Land with the pastor, Christmas banquet pricing, specials the church has secured on books the pastor or cell groups will be using in teaching, items church members have for sale, and advertisements by businesses owned by Christian businessmen.

And, as usual, these individuals and institutions seek to systematize their sin, to, "delineate their deviancy," seeking, as in other cases, to make disobedience to God, into orthodoxy, or common practice. Sin, like, "misery, loves company," and seeks to legitimize itself by historical or Theological revision, and common practice by as many people as possible ("Mob Rule," or, "Doctrine by Democracy"). The feeling is, that, if enough people do it, it must be okay, or, at least, 'my own sin will get lost in the crowd.' Also, knowing that God provides very clear direction regarding His house, those who would disobey Him natu-

While these two occasions are the only ones in which Jesus' patience with individuals was exhausted during His earthly ministry, resulting in their dramatic punishment, these occasions are not unprecedented in the annals of His Father's dealing with man.

God's, "getting fed up," with man is related in the events of: the Great Flood (Gen. 6-8), the destruction of Sodom (Gen. 19), God's desire to destroy the rebellious Israelites in the desert (Deu. 9:14), and His planned destruction of satan and sinners in the events of the Last Judgement.

It should additionally be noted that all such occasions are, with God, without exception, "the last straw," and so rare as to be otherwise without precedent. Such a response from God is always in recognition of the state of utter depravity and irreconcilability of the guilty. This, "giving up," on the part of God, and His subsequent, 'delivering them up to destruction,' is explained in detail in Romans 1:18-32, in which the sins responsible include homosexuality, idolatry, fornication, murder, hating God, and more. Jesus reached such a state of exhausted patience with sin, on these two occasions, 'giving up,' on the sinners, and casting them out of the Presence of God. For the sin of despising the house of God, and buying and selling within it.

rally feel a need to revise God's Words, and bring into question the validity of His Instruction. As Satan's original temptation to Eve to sin: "Did God REALLY say... ?"

For this reason many excuses for disobeying God in relation to this matter have been formulated. We address a few of them here:

A FEW EXCUSES USED FOR THE COMMERCIALIZATION OF CHURCH BUILDINGS

NCORRECT: "Jesus was preaching in the OLD Testament, not the New!"

Jesus' entire ministry was the New Testament. Jesus didn't come, preach the Old Testament, then switch and teach the New Testament, then die and resurrect! His entire ministry was the New Testament!

16 The Law and the Prophets were proclaimed until John; since that time the Gospel of the kingdom of God has been preached, and everyone is forcing his way into It.

Luke 16: 16 The BIBLE

Jesus never preached Old Testament doctrine; His entire message was New Testament doctrine. If Jesus's Words and doctrine were in fact merely a continuation of the Old Testament we could legitimately disregard everything He taught, as being merely Old Testament commands for the Jewish nation, and not teachings of righteousness intended for an international New Testament audience (and, in fact, this is exactly what this excuse attempts: to de-legitimize the Words and commands of Christ)! Such an argument would eliminate the Gospels altogether, shorten the New Testament, and limit our responsibility of obedience to merely those sections of the New Testament outside the Gospels; and there are many heretics who attempt to de-legitimize those sections of the New Testament, saying that they're not the Words of Jesus!

While the Holy Spirit, He Who characterizes and enables the New Testament was indeed not given until the Day of Pentecost, He was given only because of the non-presence of Jesus.

13 In Whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard the Word of truth, the Gospel of your salvation: in Whom also after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that Holy Spirit of promise, 14 Which Is the earnest of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession, unto the praise of His glory.

Ephesians 1: 13 The BIBLE

Before the Holy Spirit was given, it was the presence of Jesus that enabled the disciples. It was the presence of Jesus, not of the Holy Spirit, that established the New Testament; the Holy Spirit is only the representative, the proof, the token of Jesus. Jesus said, not that the Holy Spirit established the New Testament, but that it was Jesus.

19 And He took bread, and gave thanks, and brake it, and gave unto them, saying, This is My body which is given for you: this do in remembrance of Me.

20 Likewise also the cup after supper, saying, This cup is the New Testament in My blood, which is shed for you.

Luke 22:19 The BIBLE

EXCUSE 2a) INCORRECT: "These passages of the Bible are obsolete:
 Instead, WE are now the only temple of the Holy Ghost!"

Some would suggest that, as the people of God are now (in the New Testament) called the temple of the Holy Ghost,

19 What? know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost Which Is in you, Which ye have of God, and ye are not your own?

I Corinthians 6:19 The BIBLE

... that the physical building in which we worship is now merely a building, little different from any other building of stone and wood. For this reason, say they, we may do almost whatever we want in a church building, and hold the structure in the same low regard we might show any other structure of earth and wood.

However, in John 8, six chapters after Jesus casts out the merchants near the beginning of His ministry, when Jesus is asked to condone the execution of a woman who, by adultery, has defiled her fleshly 'temple of the Holy Ghost,' Jesus is understanding and forgiving, saying, "Neither do I condemn thee. Go and sin no more." In comparison, when, six chapters previously, Jesus finds that the stone temple of God, in Jerusalem, is defiled, He becomes irate! While Jesus would not condone others' violence against the adulterer, and both personally and publicly pardoned her, He did become personally violent against those buying and selling in the temple – He personally flogged them – and on two different occasions! Yet, when some Christians today are given the choice, they would rather Jesus switched His reactions! Apparently God's priorities for both are not what these liberal Christians would do! Unlike the desires of many Christians, in the New Testament God would neither stone a person to death for adultery, nor allow His houses of worship to be defiled by commerce!

8 For My thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways My ways, saith the LORD.

9 For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are My ways higher than your ways, and My thoughts than your thoughts.

10 For as the rain cometh down, and the snow from heaven, and returneth not thither, but watereth the earth, and maketh it bring forth and bud, that it may give seed to the sower, and bread to the eater:

11 So shall My Word be That goeth forth out of My mouth: It shall not return unto Me void, but It shall accomplish that which I please, and It shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent It.

Isaiah 55:8 The BIBLE

So, judging by Jesus' actions, the desecration of which temple is more serious to our Lord? And, in comparison, just how much respect is given each, by today's liberal Christian? And finally, what are we as individual Christians (and much more, Christian leaders) going to do about this – continue as is, or adjust our actions accordingly (not by decreasing our respect and treatment of either, but by increasing our respect and treatment of both, to be comparable to that given each of them by Christ Himself – DESPITE what other Christians may do or say!)

Yes, the New Testament Christian is, indeed, the temple of the Holy Spirit

19 What? know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost Which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own?

I Corinthians 6:19 The BIBLE

... but God Himself has made a concerted and repeated effort to show us His respect for God's, "stone and wood house," in the New Testament!

17 Now in this that I declare unto you I praise you not, that ye come together not for the better, but for the worse.

18 For first of all, when ye come together in the church, I hear that there be divisions among you; and I partly believe it.

19 For there must be also heresies among you, that they which are approved may be made manifest among you.

20 When ye come together therefore into one place, this is not to eat the Lord's supper.

21 For in eating every one taketh before other his own supper: and one is hungry, and another is drunken.

22 What? have ye not houses to eat and to drink in? or despise ye the church of God, and shame them that have not? What shall I say to you? shall I praise you in this? I praise you not.

I Cor. 11:17-22 The BIBLE

EXCUSE 2b) *INCORRECT: "These passages of the Bible are obsolete:
Instead, WE are now the only temple of the Holy Ghost!"

What Makes the House Holy?

i) The Presence of God!

Two chapters after Christ, in Matt. 21:12-13, casts the merchants out of the temple for the second time, Jesus actually defines what it is that makes a, "house of God," so sacred. Jesus, speaking in the NEW Testament, not the Old, and teaching NEW Testament doctrine, for NEW Testament Christians,⁴ says:

⁴ ALL OF NEW TESTAMENT SCRIPTURE IS APPLICABLE TO EVERY CHRISTIAN

25 And there are also many other things which Jesus did, the which, if they should be written every one, I suppose that even the world itself could not contain the books that should be written. Amen.

John 21:25 The BIBLE

In other words, God chose the events in the Life of Jesus, that we read of in Scripture to be the only events and Words of Jesus that He wanted to use in Scripture! John 21:25 tells us that there are many more events and Words of Jesus that God could have used in Scripture, but that God chose not to use. By this, we know that EVERY event and Word of Jesus used in Scripture is for US... for EVERYONE who reads them (God excluded from Scripture anything and everything from the life of Christ that was not applicable to EVERYONE reading the New Testament.) For this reason, we read that:

16 All Scripture Is given by inspiration of God, and Is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness:

16 Woe unto you, ye blind guides, which say, Whosoever shall swear by the temple, it is nothing; but whosoever shall swear by the gold of the temple, he is a debtor!

17 Ye fools and blind: for whether is greater, the gold, or the temple that sanctifieth the gold?

18 And, Whosoever shall swear by the altar, it is nothing; but whosoever sweareth by the gift that is upon it, he is guilty.

19 Ye fools and blind: for whether is greater, the gift, or the altar that sanctifieth the gift?

20 Whoso therefore shall swear by the altar, sweareth by it, and by all things thereon.

21 And whoso shall swear by the temple, sweareth by it, and by him that dwelleth therein.

22 And he that shall swear by heaven, sweareth by the throne of God, and by Him that sitteth thereon.

Matthew 23:16 The BIBLE

Jesus thus states, in the NEW Testament,⁵ not the Old, and teaching NEW Testament doctrine, for NEW Testament Christians, that:

II Timothy 3:16 The BIBLE

There is an unquantifiable amount of Jesus' history that was never written in the Word of God, because it wasn't applicable to us! (i.e., things Jesus said to individuals which were none of our business, and might have confused Jesus' Words to us, as individuals.) Therefore, we can know that everything that is written within Its pages is for US! In giving us His Word, God sifted through all of Jesus' history, and gave us exactly, completely, and solely that which is applicable to us, and required of us. Put simply, there is no extraneous, extra, nor unnecessary, "filler," material in the Bible, in particular, the New Testament: it's all intended for us!

⁵ JESUS PREACHED THE NEW TESTAMENT, NOT THE OLD. THEREFORE, ALL HE TAUGHT IS FOR EVERYONE TODAY.

16 The Law and the Prophets were until John: since that time the kingdom of God is preached, and every man presseth into it.

Luke 16: 16 The BIBLE

Jesus WAS and IS the New Testament! The Old Testament ended with John the Baptist; the New Testament began with Jesus! The suggestion that Jesus' Words ANYWHERE were for only an OLD Testament audience would nullify ALL that Jesus taught! Jesus did NOT teach during the Old Testament, nor did He teach nor preach the Old Testament. Jesus Is and brought the New Testament!

15 And for this cause He Is the mediator of the new testament, that by means of death, for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first testament, they which are called might receive the promise of eternal inheritance.

Hebrews 9:15 The BIBLE

That is why, when Jesus came along, John decreased, then died, during Jesus' sojourn on earth, in order for Jesus to increase, and flourish, and that the New Testament might begin at that time.

26 And they came unto John, and said unto him, Rabbi, he that was with thee beyond Jordan, to whom thou barest witness, behold, the same baptizeth, and all men come to him.

27 John answered and said, A man can receive nothing, except it be given him from heaven.

28 Ye yourselves bear me witness, that I said, I am not the Christ, but that I am sent before him.

i)

God, “that dwelleth therein” – within the physical, wood and stone building used for His worship.

ii)

For that reason the house of God (“temple”) is greater than the gifts to God within the house of God.

Jesus was not sent to preach Old Testament doctrine; Jesus Was and Is the NEW Testament. Jesus states that God dwells within the building used for His worship. And He states that because of the fact that He lives in the physical house of worship, what is within it is made holy (sanctified).

The modern Christian loves to read verses such as:

4 Blessed are they that dwell in Thy house: they will be still praising Thee. Selah
Psalm 84:4 The BIBLE

1 I was glad when they said unto me, Let us go into the house of the Lord.
Psalm 122:1 The BIBLE

16 And He came to Nazareth, where He had been brought up; and as His custom was, He went into the synagogue on the Sabbath day, and stood up for to read.
Luke 4:16 The BIBLE

52 And they worshipped Him and returned to Jerusalem with great joy.
 53 And were continually in the temple, praising and blessing God. Amen.
Luke 24:52 The BIBLE

... but if there were no particular place of God, these verses and many more would be moot/unimportant! Why would we gain such pleasure considering spending time IN God’s house, rather than be satisfied merely AS God’s house? “The house of God,” cannot be simply re-interpreted by liberal Christians as, “the presence of God,” because God differentiates between His child’s personal time in the presence of God, and the corporate gathering together of His people as the presence of God.

11 Thou wilt shew me the path of life: in Thy presence is fulness of joy; at Thy right hand there are pleasures for evermore.
Psalm 16:11 The BIBLE

29 He that hath the bride is the bridegroom: but the friend of the bridegroom, which standeth and heareth him, rejoiceth greatly because of the bridegroom's voice: this my joy therefore is fulfilled.

30 He must increase, but I must decrease.

31 He that cometh from above is above all: he that is of the earth is earthly, and speaketh of the earth: He that cometh from heaven is above all.

32 And what He hath seen and heard, that He testifieth; and no man receiveth his testimony.

33 He that hath received His testimony hath set to his seal that God Is true.

34 For He Whom God hath sent speaketh the Words of God: for God giveth not the Spirit by measure unto Him.

35 The Father loveth the Son, and hath given all things into His hand.

John 3:26-35 The BIBLE

EXCUSE 2c) *INCORRECT: "These passages of the Bible are obsolete:
Instead, WE are now the only temple of the Holy Ghost!"

What Makes the House Holy?

ii) The Presence of God's People!

Where God's people are gathered together in His Name the place is sacred, and, as spoken by God, is to be recognized and sanctified as such. It is not only the place that is holy, but also the presence of God and His people make it holy. And as such, it is to be a sanctified and respected place of worship of God, and of ministry to God's people.

AS God's Presence

25 Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another: and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching.

Hebrews 10:25 The BIBLE

20 For where two or three are gathered together in My Name, there Am I in the midst of them.

Matthew 18:20 The BIBLE

God thus identifies, "the Church," as being as much, 'the location,' of His people, as, 'His people,' themselves. And, if God's people are a sacred thing, not to be hindered, so, also, their location.

NCORRECT: "Christ's anger here is merely because they were being dishonest in their business transactions."

It's all about Jesus' and the Peoples' ATTITUDE!

The four passages that relate the two times that Jesus cleansed the temple, depict the difference in ATTITUDES between that of Jesus, and that of those people defiling the temple. Jesus cleansed the temple twice: once, at the beginning, and once, near the end of His ministry.

Jesus' Attitude:

The first time⁶ that Jesus rebuked the peoples' making the temple a house of merchandise, it is JESUS' attitude, the more important one, that is emphasized:

16 And said unto them that sold doves, Take these things hence; make not My Father's house an house of merchandise.

17 And His disciples remembered that it was written, THE ZEAL OF THINE HOUSE HATH EATEN ME UP.

John 2: 16-17 (Psalm 69:9) The BIBLE

⁶ John 2:13-17

In this passage the Disciples realized WHY Jesus did this: it was because of His attitude of intense love and respect for the house of God, and therefore for God Himself! In doing this at the beginning of His ministry, Jesus establishes the spirit and authority by which He was to conduct His ministry.

Jesus had already displayed and established this love of His toward the temple when He was twelve years of age, and had spent time there at Passover.

40 And the child grew, and waxed strong in spirit, filled with wisdom: and the grace of God was upon Him.

41 Now His parents went to Jerusalem every year at the feast of the passover.

42 And when He was twelve years old, they went up to Jerusalem after the custom of the feast.

43 And when they had fulfilled the days, as they returned, the child Jesus tarried behind in Jerusalem; and Joseph and his mother knew not of it.

44 But they, supposing Him to have been in the company, went a day's journey; and they sought Him among their kinsfolk and acquaintance.

45 And when they found Him not, they turned back again to Jerusalem, seeking Him.

46 And it came to pass, that after three days they found Him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the doctors, both hearing them, and asking them questions.

47 And all that heard Him were astonished at His understanding and answers.

48 And when they saw Him, they were amazed: and His mother said unto Him, Son, why hast Thou thus dealt with us? behold, Thy father and I have sought thee sorrowing.

49 And He said unto them, How is it that ye sought Me? wist ye not that I must be about My Father's business?

50 And they understood not the saying which He spake unto them.

51 And He went down with them, and came to Nazareth, and was subject unto them: but His mother kept all these sayings in her heart.

52 And Jesus increased in wisdom and stature, and in favour with God and man.

Luke 2:40-52 The BIBLE

In fact God had made sure to prophesy of this attitude, centuries before, in a passage that even speaks also of the incident at His age 12!

7 Because for Thy sake I have borne reproach; shame hath covered My face.

8 I Am become a stranger unto My brethren, and an alien unto My mother's children.

9 For THE ZEAL OF THINE HOUSE HATH EATEN ME UP; and the reproaches of them that reproached Thee are fallen upon Me.

Psalms 69:7-9 The BIBLE

The Peoples' Attitude:

The second time that Christ cleansed the temple,⁷ near the end of His ministry, it is THE PEOPLES' attitude that is emphasized. In quoting Jeremiah 7:11, Jesus is declaring that their ATTITUDE toward the temple is comparable to the disdain one would give a den of thieves! In contrast to how they see the house of God, God sees their attitude!

11 Is this house, which is called by My Name, become a den of robbers IN YOUR EYES? Behold, even I have seen it, saith the Lord.

Jeremiah 7:11 The BIBLE

Jesus, quotes a portion of this verse of Jeremiah and expects that the rest of the quotation, "in your eyes," or, "in your opinion," will be understood by His hearers, as it's integral to the passage that He's quoting, and to its context. The Old Testament passage rebukes those who fail to respect, or who even despise the temple of God. God doesn't mean, in Jeremiah, that the temple has necessarily been made a literal, "den of thieves," or, "a place where robbery takes place," but that, in their eyes, it's despised, a, "place of disrepute," or simply, just a place that's not worthy of the respect God requires of it ("... a den of robbers in your eyes"). Jesus' anger is even more for their attitude of disdain toward the temple than for their actions (the disciples recognized this on the occasion of the first cleansing, realizing that Psalm 69's, "zeal of [love/enthusiasm for] Thine house," referred to Jesus in this context), especially when compared to the attitude of the people, toward the house of God:

"... the reproaches of them that reproached Thee are fallen upon Me."

Psalm 69:9 The BIBLE

Later, in the same Jeremiah chapter 7, we continue to read of the disrepute given to the house of the Lord; again, it's GOD's attitude toward them, that's important: "in My sight!"

30 For the children of Judah have done evil in My sight, saith the LORD: they have set their abominations in the house which is called by My Name, to pollute it.

Jeremiah 7:30 The BIBLE

The pollutions of the house of God are spoken of also in Ezekiel 44. God reminds Ezekiel in verses 7 and 9 of that chapter that no one who is, "uncircumcised in heart,"⁸ may even enter the temple, and that doing so would pollute it, breaking God's covenant. And it is in this same passage that God states that the east gate is shut because God Himself has entered the temple by means of it, and that the gate is in future intended only for, "the Prince," Jesus Himself, Who would eventually enter by it!

1 Then He brought me back the way of the gate of the outward sanctuary which looketh toward the east; and it was shut.

2 Then said the LORD unto me; This gate shall be shut, it shall not be opened, and no man shall enter in by it; because the LORD, the God of Israel, hath entered in by it, therefore it shall be shut.

3 It is for the Prince; the Prince, He shall sit in it to eat bread before the LORD; He shall enter by the way of the porch of that gate, and shall go out by the way of the same.

4 Then brought He me the way of the north gate before the house: and I looked, and, behold, the glory of the LORD filled the house of the LORD: and I fell upon my face.

⁸ Referred to by God in also Ezekiel 18:31 and 36:26, and to be later referred to by Jesus under the term, "BORN AGAIN," in John 3, and by Peter, in I Peter 1:23.

5 And the LORD said unto me, Son of man, mark well, and behold with thine eyes, and hear with thine ears all that I say unto thee concerning all the ordinances of the house of the LORD, and all the laws thereof; and mark well the entering in of the house, with every going forth of the sanctuary.

6 And thou shalt say to the rebellious, even to the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord GOD; O ye house of Israel, let it suffice you of all your abominations,

7 In that ye have brought into My sanctuary strangers, uncircumcised in heart, and uncircumcised in flesh, to be in My sanctuary, to pollute it, even My house, when ye offer my bread, the fat and the blood, and they have broken My covenant because of all your abominations.

8 And ye have not kept the charge of Mine holy things: but ye have set keepers of My charge in My sanctuary for yourselves.

9 Thus saith the Lord GOD; No stranger, uncircumcised in heart, nor uncircumcised in flesh, shall enter into My sanctuary, of any stranger that is among the children of Israel.

Ezekiel 44:1-9 The BIBLE

Ezekiel 44 centers on the heart and attitude of those in the temple, and especially of those serving in it; it is their attitudes that most defile the temple of God. Physical abominations such as idols are mentioned only very briefly. It is the heart and the attitude that matter most to God. When Jesus casts people out of the temple it is because of their attitude toward it, and it is that which He most deplors. It is their outward sins against the temple that reflect their heart and attitude toward God, and declare this to the world.

Jesus did indeed enter the temple, and he twice purified it; and He will eventually, at the Last Day, enter the third time, and purge it once and for all!

1 Behold, I will send My messenger, and he shall prepare the way before Me: and the Lord, Whom ye seek, shall suddenly come to His temple, even the Messenger of the covenant, Whom ye delight in: behold, He shall come, saith the LORD of hosts.

2 But who may abide the day of His coming? and who shall stand when He appeareth? for He is like a refiner's fire, and like fullers' soap:

3 And He shall sit as a refiner and purifier of silver: and He shall purify the sons of Levi, and purge them as gold and silver, that they may offer unto the LORD an offering in righteousness.

4 Then shall the offering of Judah and Jerusalem be pleasant unto the LORD, as in the days of old, and as in former years.

5 And I will come near to you to judgment; and I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers, and against the adulterers, and against false swearers, and against those that oppress the hireling in his wages, the widow, and the fatherless, and that turn aside the stranger from his right, and fear not Me, saith the LORD of hosts.

6 For I Am the LORD, I change not; therefore ye sons of Jacob are not consumed.

Malachi 3:1-6 The LORD

The third time that Jesus will purge the temple will be on the Last Day, when He will purge the temple of all the unGodliness of the world found there,⁹ and of the Abomination of Desolation.¹⁰

⁹ Revelation 11:1-2

While, in John, Old Testament prophecy ("For the zeal of thine house hath eaten me up"¹¹) is quoted to illustrate the attitude of Jesus, in the Synoptics, Old Testament prophecy ("a den of robbers in your eyes?"¹²) is quoted to illustrate the attitude of the merchants and of those merely passing through the temple. Jesus casts out not only the merchants, but also those who bought, and those who 'merely' carried things through the temple! Purchasers and couriers are not, "thieves!" Jesus' rebuke was not merely for criminal acts such as thievery; it was for anything done in the temple other than what Jesus and His Father had always intended – and for those who thus showed both the temple, and therefore God Himself, less respect than what it deserved, being the house of God! Jesus rebuked them, "It is written, My house is the house of prayer,"¹³ but ye have made it a den of thieves ("in your eyes"¹⁴).

15 And they come to Jerusalem: and Jesus went into the temple, and began to cast out them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the moneychangers, and the seats of them that sold doves

16 And would not suffer that any man should carry any vessel through the temple.

17 And He taught, saying unto them, Is it not written, My house shall be called of all nations the house of prayer? but ye have made it a den of thieves.

Mark 11:15-17 The BIBLE

1 The Word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

2 Stand in the gate of the LORD'S house, and proclaim there this Word, and say, Hear the Word of the LORD, all ye of Judah, that enter in at these gates to worship the LORD.

3 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Amend your ways and your doings, and I will cause you to dwell in this place.¹⁵

4 Trust ye not in lying words, saying, The temple of the LORD, The temple of the LORD, The temple of the LORD, are these.

5 For if ye thoroughly amend your ways and your doings; if ye thoroughly execute judgment between a man and his neighbour;

6 If ye oppress not the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow, and shed not innocent blood in this place, neither walk after other gods to your hurt:

7 Then will I cause you to dwell in this place, in the land that I gave to your fathers, for ever and ever.

¹⁰ THE ABOMINATION OF DESOLATION

¹¹ Psalm 69:9

¹² Jeremiah 7:11

¹³ Isaiah 56:7

¹⁴ Jer. 7:11

¹⁵ 6 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

Psalm 23:6 The BIBLE

4 One thing have I desired of the LORD, that will I seek after; that I may dwell in the house of the LORD all the days of my life, to behold the beauty of the LORD, and to enquire in His temple.

Psalm 27:4 The BIBLE

8 Behold, ye trust in lying words, that cannot profit.
 9 Will ye steal, murder, and commit adultery, and swear falsely, and burn incense unto Baal, and walk after other gods whom ye know not;
 10 And come and stand before Me in this house, which is called by My Name, and say, We are delivered to do all these abominations?
 11 Is this house, which is called by My Name, become a den of robbers in your eyes? Behold, even I have seen it, saith the LORD.
 12 But go ye now unto my place which was in Shiloh, where I set My Name at the first, and see what I did to it for the wickedness of my people Israel.
 13 And now, because ye have done all these works, saith the LORD, and I spake unto you, rising up early and speaking, but ye heard not; and I called you, but ye answered not;
 14 Therefore will I do unto this house, which is called by My Name, wherein ye trust, and unto the place which I gave to you and to your fathers, as I have done to Shiloh.
 15 And I will cast you out of my sight, as I have cast out all your brethren, even the whole seed of Ephraim.
 16 Therefore pray not thou for this people, neither lift up cry nor prayer for them, neither make intercession to me: for I will not hear thee.
 17 Seest thou not what they do in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem?

Jeremiah 7:1-17 The BIBLE

“Has this place become despised, dishonourable, and disreputable in your eyes?”

EXCUSE 4)

INCORRECT: “But it’s for God’s work!”

Some suggest that, if the advertising or merchandising done in the house of God is for God’s work, it’s justified! But it was exactly for, “the work of God,” that the sellers of oxen, sheep and doves, and moneychangers, were in the temple; that was exactly where those animals were needed (for sacrifices)! The moneychangers were there to convert Roman currency, the money used on the streets, into temple currency, the only coinage considered by the Jews to be holy enough to be used as tithes and offerings and put into the coffers, or, “cast into the treasury,”¹⁶ of the sacred house of God. The people who did commerce in the temple did so for the, “work of God,” – the very same people Jesus whipped and cast out of the temple for doing it in the house of God!

14 And Samuel said, What meaneth then this bleating of the sheep in mine ears, and the lowing of the oxen which I hear?

21 But the people took of the spoil, sheep and oxen, the chief of the things which should have been utterly destroyed, to sacrifice unto the LORD thy God in Gilgal.
 22 And Samuel said, Hath the LORD as great delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices, as in obeying the voice of the LORD? Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice, and to hearken than the fat of rams.

¹⁶ Lu. 21:1

23 For rebellion is as the sin of witchcraft, and stubbornness is as iniquity and idolatry. Because thou hast rejected the Word of the LORD, He hath also rejected thee from being king.

I Samuel 15:14, 21-23 The BIBLE

10 Cursed be he that doeth the work of the LORD deceitfully

Jeremiah 48:10a The BIBLE

8 For I the LORD love judgment, I hate robbery for burnt offering; and I will direct their work in truth, and I will make an everlasting covenant with them.

Isaiah 61:8 The BIBLE

The end definitely does not justify the means, regardless of whether it's done with good intent!

EXCUSE 5)

INCORRECT: "What harm could it do?"

If at all, this is only a minor sin; why concern yourself with it?

This was the only sin at which Jesus ever flew into a rage, whipped people, overturned furniture, and physically cast people out! a MINOR sin? "What harm could it do?" Ask Jesus!

8 For My thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways My ways, saith the LORD.

9 For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are My ways higher than your ways, and My thoughts than your thoughts.

Isaiah 55:8 The BIBLE

EXCUSE 6)

INCORRECT: "But without being commercial we wouldn't be able to exist as a church/ministry, or to conduct this particular outreach/ministry!"

The end definitely does not justify the means!

Sometimes we develop tunnel vision, an inability to see farther/wider than what we're doing now, or have done before. We fail to see, "outside the box," to be able to see any other solutions.

Perhaps we have overstepped our commission from God. God definitely WILL provide the means, for the ministry He has commissioned!

Perhaps our commission in this place/way/time is finished. One is tempted to wonder how effective the ministry or Paul the Apostle would have been if he had relied on the gifts and support of others.

Moreover, we read in Scripture how King David, the, "man after God's own heart,"¹⁷ in his great love for His Lord, had prepared building materials with the intent of constructing a temple for God. But, despite David's admittedly worthy intent to in this way serve God, God told him that the Lord had other plans. If David had continued in his plans to build the house of the Lord he would have been going beyond his commission.

¹⁷ Acts 13:22

- 1 Then David said, This is the house of the LORD God, and this is the altar of the burnt offering for Israel.
- 2 And David commanded to gather together the strangers that were in the land of Israel; and he set masons to hew wrought stones to build the house of God.
- 3 And David prepared iron in abundance for the nails for the doors of the gates, and for the joinings; and brass in abundance without weight;
- 4 Also cedar trees in abundance: for the Zidonians and they of Tyre brought much cedar wood to David.
- 5 And David said, Solomon my son is young and tender, and the house that is to be builded for the LORD must be exceeding magnificent, of fame and of glory throughout all countries: I will therefore now make preparation for it. So David prepared abundantly before his death.
- 6 Then he called for Solomon his son, and charged him to build an house for the LORD God of Israel.
- 7 And David said to Solomon, My son, as for me, it was in my mind to build an house unto the Name of the LORD my God:
- 8 But the Word of the LORD came to me, saying, Thou hast shed blood abundantly, and hast made great wars: thou shalt not build an house unto My Name, because thou hast shed much blood upon the earth in my sight.
- 9 Behold, a son shall be born to thee, who shall be a man of rest; and I will give him rest from all his enemies round about: for his name shall be Solomon, and I will give peace and quietness unto Israel in his days.
- 10 He shall build an house for My Name; and he shall be My son, and I will be his father; and I will establish the throne of his kingdom over Israel for ever.

I Chronicles 22:1-10 The BIBLE

Despite David's great love for his Lord, if he had gone ahead and built the temple himself he would have actually been in direct opposition the the purposes of God.

Joshua warned against doing 'the work of the Lord' when one is not called to do so:

- 19 Notwithstanding, if the land of your possession be unclean, then pass ye over unto the land of the possession of the LORD, wherein the LORD's tabernacle dwelleth, and take possession among us: but rebel not against the LORD, nor rebel against us, in building you an altar beside the altar of the LORD our God.
- 20 Did not Achan the son of Zerah commit a trespass in the accursed thing, and wrath fell on all the congregation of Israel? and that man perished not alone in his iniquity.

II) PREACHING ONLY TO THOSE WITH MONEY

OR

CHARGING MONEY FOR THE PREACHING OF THE WORD

– Which honours the preacher and dishonours the audience

11 The heads thereof judge for reward, and the priests thereof teach for hire, and the prophets thereof divine for money: yet will they lean upon the LORD, and say, is not the LORD among us? none evil can come upon us.

Micah 3:11 The BIBLE

CHRISTIAN BOOKS ARE written, requiring payment before a copy may be obtained! What is this other than preaching for hire, denying preaching/teaching to those who cannot pay! Jesus was willing to live in city parks (Garden of Gethsemane) and eat others' garbage (the 12 baskets of trash collected after the feeding of the five thousand and the seven baskets after the feeding of the four thousand) rather than charge money to those who wished to hear the preaching of the Word of God. Keith Green gave away his music and books to those unable to purchase them; he exemplified the example of Christ.

"SIGNS AND WONDERS," Seminars are held in various places, guaranteeing that the participants will come away from the conference with the ability to perform miracles, healings, etc. The catch? The conference costs the participant a few hundred dollars!

17 Then laid they their hands on them, and they received the Holy Ghost.

18 And when Simon saw that through laying on of the apostles' hands the Holy Ghost was given, he offered them money,

19 Saying, Give me also this power, that on whomsoever I lay hands, he may receive the Holy Ghost.

20 But Peter said unto him, Thy money perish with thee, because thou hast thought that the gift of God may be purchased with money.

21 Thou hast neither part nor lot in this matter: for thy heart is not right in the sight of God.

22 Repent therefore of this thy wickedness, and pray God, if perhaps the thought of thine heart may be forgiven thee.

23 For I perceive that thou art in the gall of bitterness, and in the bond of iniquity.

Acts 8:17-23 The BIBLE

"DISPELLING THE DARKNESS," conferences, MEN'S conferences, WOMENS' conferences, and many others, all charging admission fees, are held, often even in churches! Many pastors and evangelists preach nothing but, "give." Some concentrate on preaching about, "seedfaith," or make prosperity doctrine a major part of their preaching. A few miracles, and the moving of the Holy Spirit, and then, again, "give."

But Jesus gave John the Baptist the example of His preaching to the poor as an evidence of His very Messiahship - of His commission from the Father!

5 The blind receive their sight, and the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, and the poor have the Gospel preached to them.

Matthew 11:5 The BIBLE

22 Then Jesus answering said unto them, Go your way, and tell John what things ye have seen and heard; how that the blind see, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, to the poor the Gospel is preached.

Luke 7:22 The BIBLE

A Result of Commercialism: Market-based Preaching

Christianity has become a great money-maker, a "cash cow." This determines what is preached, and is perhaps the greatest cause of need for most of the sermons on this site about populist disobedience: when cash is the object, one seeks to provide what people wish to buy! Christianity becomes a bottom-up economy, determined by the market, rather than a top-down supply, provided by God!

1 Ho, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money; come ye, buy, and eat; yea, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price.

Isaiah 55:1 The BIBLE

Commercialism in God's house was the ONLY reason Jesus ever whipped anyone and physically thrust them out of God's house! Far be it from US to despise His house!
